
Updated Comparisons

This site is awesome!

I was wondering if anyone had any updated side by side comparisons or if you guys planned on updating your comparisons and adding some additional companies, cause I am really interested in starting a mosaic project.

Just trying to make sure I go with the right company.

Let me know...

Thanks,

Mike

Hi Mike,

Our goal is to update our comparisons as needed or once per year. During an update period we will review all mosaic companies that fit our criteria in the "Review Process". We try very hard to stay current and bring mosaic enthusiasts the best of the best in the world of mosaics.

I hope this is what you were looking for and we am glad you like the site. I wish you much success on your mosaic project!

Melissa
